When poor Mrs. Bradley is thrown into directing the church Christmas pageant, she is faced with casting the six Herdman children, a notorious family of juvenile delinquents. Known as "the worst kids in the whole history of the world," they lie, steal, hit, bite, cuss, smoke cigars, and dabble in arson. As Christmas Eve approaches, the Bradley family and the entire congregation live in fear of what's going to happen when the horrible Herdmans collide head-on with the pageant. Can only a miracle save Christmas? This delightful comedy is adapted from the best-selling young adult book by Barbara Robinson and has become a beloved holiday tradition.

Auditions for

January 2-3

A play by Eric Coble
 Based on the book by Lois Lowry

Jonas lives in an isolated, seemingly perfect community, where there is no war, fear, or pain. There also are no choices, as everyone is assigned a lifetime role and all is "Sameness." When Jonas turns 12, he is chosen to become The Giver – the one person who holds the collective memories of humanity's past – and discovers a shocking reality. Adapted from the best-selling young-adult novel, this is a haunting, thought-provoking drama about growing up, becoming wise, and finding your destiny.

Auditions will be held on Tuesday, January 2 and Wednesday, January 3 at 7:00 p.m. It is only necessary to attend one night of auditions. Full details are available in the December 2017 Cue Sheet.

The Giver is directed by Chris Jorie. There will be 11 public performances from February 15-25, 2018. For more information, call (352) 236-2274 or go to www.ocalacivictheatre.com.

Auditions for

January 29-30

By Larry Shue

In this hilarious Southern-fried comedy, two British gentlemen, Froggy and Charlie, arrive for a peaceful weekend at a fishing lodge in rural Georgia. Poor Charlie, depressed and painfully shy, is terrified of talking to strangers – so Froggy tells everyone that Charlie is a foreigner from an exotic country and doesn't know a word of English. But when Charlie overhears some scandalous news, as well as some sinister plans, does he confess or keep up the charade in a wildly funny farce?

Auditions will be held on Monday, January 29 and Tuesday, January 30 at 7:00 p.m. It is only necessary to attend one night of auditions. Full details are available in the December 2017 Cue Sheet.

The Foreigner is directed by Chip Morris. There will be 20 public performances from March 15 – April 8, 2018. For more information, call (352) 236-2274 or go to www.ocalacivictheatre.com.

Rene Schafer

VOLUNTEER SPOTLIGHT

A relatively new yet now-familiar smiling face in the scene shop, Rene Schafer is one of our regular volunteers among the fantastic crew who builds and paints our amazing sets. She has only been with us since the summer of 2016, but since then she has volunteered more than 600 hours – even though she leaves each winter to head south for several months!

Rene moved to Ocala from Chicago, where she was a regular volunteer with The Saints, a large group of volunteers who usher for many of the Chicago theatres. When she moved here, friends told her about Ocala Civic Theatre. She e-mailed OCT to see if we had any volunteer openings, and was happy to discover that we needed volunteers in many different areas. Once she filled out and turned in the volunteer form, she got a call from Volunteer Coordinator Craig James to see if she was interested in helping with set construction and painting. She said yes – and she's been so glad she did.

"Set construction is amazing," Rene says. "I have learned so much from {Production Manager/Technical Director} Jeff Davis and {Assistant Technical Director} Will Spratt, who are extremely patient, generous, trusting, and talented. They let me do things I never dreamed I could do; they let me do things I was afraid of doing, like using electric power tools. The process of building a set is more complex than I ever realized. Being a small part of that work is so satisfying. I love seeing it all come together. I am amazed at the end product of our work and so proud of each little thing we have done."

The people are also a big part of what makes volunteering at OCT so rewarding for Rene. "I love the people I have met from so many backgrounds," she says. "What a great group of creative people. I have made some new friends, and that makes me happy."

Besides building and painting sets, Rene also ushers and helps with mailings. Anything new she'd like to try in future? Rene is one of those great volunteers who is willing to try anything. "If I can be of help in any area, I would be happy to help," she says. "I love the theatre."

And we love volunteers like you! Thank you, Rene, for your helpful spirit, positive attitude, and great work in creating the magic of live theatre.

Mary H. Britt, Executive Director

Hello! Have you finished your holiday shopping? I haven't even started! Well, I have a great gift idea to suggest: gift certificates from Ocala Civic Theatre, of course! Gift certificates are great for family, friends, and business acquaintances. They are always the right size and color. Going to the theatre is great fun, and a gift certificate allows the recipient to choose the type of show they want. What a great way to introduce someone – student or adult – to the magic of theatre. You can even use the certificate to pay for one of the classes offered by our Education Department. You can purchase the gift certificates in person or over the phone. We will be happy to mail the gift card to you or the person you designate. We have several people who live out of state who annually buy their parents tickets to attend our theatre. Holiday shopping done!

Well, the Roast was a hoot! Thanks to the amazing steering committee, the emcee team of Chip Morris and Gary Rigby, the roasters, and a great crowd, it was a happy and successful fundraiser. As I mentioned last month, there was a special announcement made at the Roast: We are renovating the auditorium this summer! We will be replacing the seats in the auditorium with new, wider seats and will be painting the auditorium. That night, we launched the fund drive to cover the renovation expenses. You will be receiving a letter in the mail with all the details. We will have samples of the new seats in the lobby of the theatre soon. To support the project, seats will be sold for $500 each with a donor plaque attached. In addition to cash donations, you might wish to consider a donation of stock. When you make a direct transfer to a charity, you avoid the capital gains tax and can take the full value of the charitable deduction. If you have questions, check with your financial advisor or give me a call.

This is the first time I am reprinting something from my column, but these thoughts from last December still ring true... I hope you enjoyed the Thanksgiving holiday! For me, the weeks surrounding Thanksgiving and Christmas are the "Norman Rockwell" time of year. One of his most famous paintings is of the family gathered for what looks like a Thanksgiving dinner. Its title is "I'll Be Home for Christmas" and was one of the Four Freedoms series: Freedom of Speech, Freedom of Worship, Freedom from Fear, and this one, Freedom from Want. It was published in March 1943 when World War II was still raging, perhaps as a reminder of why we were fighting. Freedom from Want depicts the idyllic picture of what we hope everyone's holiday celebration will look like – friends and family gathered in a warm house, plenty to eat, joy all around. But we know that some won't have those benefits this holiday. Some will be alone and some won't have enough to eat, and soldiers are still fighting a long way from home. All around our community, I see individuals and groups of friends stepping up to do something special to help their neighbors. People who get joy from being the givers. Whether they volunteer or make a donation, they share their good fortune with others. Even small gestures are appreciated, sometimes much more than you know. So call that family member or friend you haven't seen in a while or send a card. Spend a few minutes catching up. Don't get me wrong: Shopping, holiday parties, and presents are definitely part of the holiday fun, but think about making one of your presents a "gift" of your friendship. Take the family or friends to the theatre. Enjoy The Best Christmas Pageant Ever or The Nutcracker or a concert. A live performance allows you to share the joy. Celebrate!

Freedom of Speech, Freedom of Worship, Freedom from Fear, and Freedom from Want. It's what we fought for in the past and is still something to aspire to in America. (If you don't know who Norman Rockwell is or don't remember the Four Freedoms series, it's worth Googling.) It's not about what side you are on or who you voted for in the last election. This is our wish for the whole community, not just during the holidays, but throughout the year.

See you at the Theatre! Joy to the World!
